

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

FEBRUARY 1, 1821.

MR. M'LANE, of Del. moved to amend the resolution from the Senate, declaring the admission of the state of Missouri into the Union, by striking out the proviso, and, in lieu thereof, to insert the following:

1 Provided, That nothing in the Constitution of the said
2 state of Missouri shall be construed to authorize or make it
3 obligatory on the Legislature to pass any law denying, to the 4 citizens of each state, any of the privileges and immunities of 5 citizens in the several states. And provided further, That 6 no law of the said state shall be construed to deny, to the citi-
7 zens of each state, any of the privileges and immunities of 8 citizens in the several states.
